FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Chelsea E. Tyner Joins Messa & Associates

Messa & Associates is excited to announce our team is growing with the addition of Chelsea E. Tyner. Ms. Tyner, a second-generation attorney, received her Juris Doctor from Rutgers Law School in Camden, NJ. She began her undergraduate coursework at Howard University, later transferring to Stockton University where she earned her bachelor's degree. She has always felt a strong responsibility to serve her local community in South Jersey, Washington, D.C., and now Philadelphia through community outreach and volunteering with local churches.

Prior to joining Messa & Associates, Ms. Tyner worked as a Judicial Law Clerk to the Honorable Terrence R. Cook for the Superior Court of New Jersey. In that role she provided recommended dispositions ahead of pre-trial motion hearings and drafted corresponding court orders and opinions. Ms. Tyner also managed documentation and correspondence for pro se defendant matters.

Ms. Tyner is motivated by her values of fairness, equity, and a desire to protect people from mistreatment. She is ready to hit the ground running in our complex personal injury and medical malpractice cases. Ms. Tyner is licensed to practice in Pennsylvania and New Jersey. We are excited to welcome her to the firm, where her commitment to equity and justice will further strengthen our practice.
